PLURAL FORM

To form plural we usually add S at the end of the noun, for example:

CAR → CARS
DOG → DOGS

But English has some rules that we have to pay attention:

S/ SS/ CH/ X/ O and Z	We add ES at the end of the noun: tomato - tomatoes/ box - boxes sandwich - sandwiches
F* and FE	We cut the F or the FE and we add VES Housewife - housewives shelf - shelves
Y	We add S if before the Y is a vowel: boy - boys/ day - days We add IES and we take out the Y if before it is consonant lady - ladies / city - cities

* Some nouns may finish with F and we just add S - sheriff - sheriffs, surf - surfs, giraffe - giraffes

Irregular Plural:

SINGULAR	PLURAL
a man	two men
a woman	two women
a child	two children
a mouse	two mice
a tooth	two teeth
a goose	two geese
a foot	two feet
an ox	two oxen

There are some nouns which are plural in English, for example:

scissors - glasses - trousers - jeans - shorts - pyjamas

- They aren't used with a/ an
- Usually take a plural verb - These stars are dangerous
- Can sometimes be made singular using a pair of - a pair of sunglasses.
